From the PRESIDENT

Happy Holidays! Please enjoy this newsletter. There is a lot of good reading inside.

As many of you are aware, USA Racquetball has undergone several changes over the last two years. There is a new Executive Director (Steve Czarnecki) and several new staff members. Some new staff members are long-time racquetball players who have spent years inside the sport. Others, like Steve, have lots of experience in other sports but are bringing a new perspective to Racquetball. Along with the USA Racquetball Board of Directors, the staff is working to execute a formal strategy to improve and grow the sport. A formal strategic plan has been created by a Board Committee and approved by the USAR Board of Directors. This plan provides a way to set goals for improving the organization and attracting members in a way that is measurable. Check out www.usaracquetball.com to learn more about the staff members and what they do. Feel free to contact them as well. They are always interested in hearing from the membership.

There are a couple of other items you should know:

1. The price of a LEM (Limited Event Membership) is now $20. The membership originally started at $20, was reduced to $10 and is now back to $20. The LEM membership was designed for the player who is new to tournament play or is only going to play in one tournament per year. At $10 per tournament, a player could actually participate in four tournaments and still not pay the amount of a regular members.

2. The 2015 National Singles tournament is moving to Denver! This should be a good change for those of us in the Midwest. Denver is easier and less expensive to get to than California. The USAR Board voted to move the tournament away from California ahead of schedule. We look forward to having better representation from across the country as a result.

The tournament season, as well as Travel League, is in full swing. Thanks to all of the folks who have volunteered at tournaments and to those who have organized and manage the Travel Leagues. We are always looking for new "helpers." Don't look at me or Cheryl Kirk or Doug Halverson as a measure of how much time it takes to volunteer. We are also happy with the person who is willing to work 2-3 hours per weekend at a couple of tournaments a year. It all counts!

As we head into a new year, I know we will all be focusing on exercise and diet so that we can compete at the highest level in the State Doubles and State Singles Championships. While you're getting yourself ready, don't forget to think about the folks that kept you from achieving last year's goals

(i.e. the winners) and nominating them for our Annual "Player of the Year" and "Most Improved Player" Awards. And, please enter early for State Doubles and State Singles!

See you on the court,

Laurel

ISRA FAMILY NEWS

Fred Barbara

Remembering Fred Barbara (1955-2014)

Fred Barbara, a long-time racquetball player and ISRA Travel League competitor, passed away recently in Naples, FL. He was a diehard doubles competitor with his good friend Bob Weber, and he played at Four Flaggs in Niles and the Eden's Court-house in Skokie among other places. Fred was 59 years old and had a 32-year career as a Chicago firefighter. He retired three years ago as a Captain and was enjoying life in the warm weather when he passed away unexpectedly on November 22nd.

New Babies/Future Players

On July 19, 2014, Hung and Dana Che welcomed Avery Ella, a petite little thing at 6 lbs. 15 oz. and 19-3/4 inches. She attended her first tournament as her dad's tiniest cheerleader at the Turkey Shoot. The noise really didn't seem to bother her...she's a natural!

The Che Family

Welcome to Milo E. Torres who entered the world as his daddy's (Memo Torres') first son and his grandparents' first grandson on October 13, 2014. At 8.5 lbs. and 20 inches, he has only a bit more to grow before he hits the courts and starts to annihilate the rest of us.

Memo, congratulations on this beautiful addition to your family!

Welcome, Milo!

Fun in the Sun!

Among the 238 players who competed in Outdoor on the Las Vegas Strip in mid-September at the 3 Wallball World Championships, there were four from Team Illinois who braved the blazing sun and had a great time! I happened to be there in Vegas just prior to the weekend, and look who I ran into in the Stratosphere Lounge! As you can see, these guys (and gal) played virtually non-stop through the event – tough!

Frank Bunker (Lisle) – Men's A Doubles, Men's Combined 100+ Doubles, and Men's Combined 75+ Doubles

Ryan Fosco (Westmont) – Men's A Doubles, Men's Combined 75+ Doubles, Men's A Singles

William Kuhlman (Frankfort) – Men's A Doubles, Men's B Doubles, Men's Combined 100+ Doubles

MEET THE BOARD

Todd Burris

Name: Todd Burris

Hometown: Bolivar, OH

Family: My wife Alisa Burris. We recently celebrated our 13th wedding anniversary, and I wouldn't know what to do without her. We also have two adorable Siamese cats, Juniper and Sedona. They are three years old and bring much joy to us.

Occupation / Employer: I have been working as a Sales & Use Tax Accountant for the past three years. My place of employment is Vertex, and I've been working there for 18 months. In my role, I prepare approximately 300-400 sales tax returns for four clients.

The busiest time is the middle two weeks of the month, which is considered our compliance period. Previously, I worked at KPMG, one of the biggest accounting firms in the world, for 1-1/2 years in their Sales Tax division. Prior to being an accountant, I was in the banking industry for eight years, and I worked in various positions.

How / when did you start playing racquetball? I really didn't know anything about racquetball until I went to college at Michigan State University in 1987. A friend of mine decided to take a racquetball course to learn the rules and regulations, so I became interested as well. All of my friends enjoyed sports and were athletic. That's why we really liked playing racquetball and felt great from all of the exercise. We would play a couple times a week and have a group of four to six people. At the time, we didn't even know the meaning of a ceiling shot or a Z-serve, but it was fun learning about a new sport.

It wasn't until I moved to the Chicago area in 1998 that I really became involved in racquetball. I moved in with my college friend, Steve Kudwa, and he suggested that we needed to get back in shape. We decided racquetball was the answer and joined the Glass Court in Lombard. We started to play in the Monday and Wednesday leagues. I was 28 at the time and thought I was a decent player since I was pretty fast. Then I played an older gentleman for my first match and assumed this was going to be pretty easy due to the age difference. And I was partially right. It did turn out to be an easy match (for my opponent) as he ran me around the court. I lost 45-15 in our three games so I was determined to improve. Ever since that day, I've been hooked on this sport. But for me, it's more than just the competition that makes me keep coming back for more. The thing I really enjoy about racquetball is that it's not just about the game itself, but the people you meet and the friendships that last a lifetime.

How do you feel about serving on the ISRA Board of Directors? Over the past 12 years, I've enjoyed playing in the tournaments. However, I also feel a great appreciation for how much work is involved and how fortunate we are to have the support of the ISRA. There are many people that volunteer their time to make the tournaments such a great success. Because racquetball has been such an important part of my life, I really wanted to give back to the sport I love. When I heard about the new Referee Certification program, I thought this would be an excellent opportunity. John O'Donnell Jr., who is also an ISRA Board member, has conducted numerous Rules and Referee clinics at both Peoria's and Lombard's major tournaments. His knowledge and expertise of the sport are great assets to the racquetball community. I would highly recommend that everyone sign up for the clinics and become certified referees.

After completing my certification, I was approached by Cheryl Kirk a few months later. She has been a Board member for many years and has volunteered countless hours helping with tournaments, preparing the newsletters and traveling with the US National Team. When we spoke, she said there were a couple of openings on the Board and asked if I would be interested. I knew many of the individuals from the tournaments and always had a great respect for their dedication and organization, so this was a great opportunity and a dream come true. I went to a few meetings and officially became a Board member in June 2014. It has been a fantastic experience learning the business scope of the ISRA and what happens behind the scenes. More importantly, what's been impressive is the dedication of all the Board members working together to make Illinois racquetball the best it can be at all times.

Outside hobbies: Besides racquetball (which takes up a majority of my free time), I like watching sports on television. Pro football, college football, and basketball are my top choices with March Madness being my favorite sporting event. I also enjoy golfing and bowling when I get a chance. Additionally, I love taking three- to four-mile walks with my wife Alisa at the Busse and Bode Forest Preserves and walking around where we live. She is the primary reason I am able to stay in shape as she works out at the gym seven days a week. I've tried to get her involved in racquetball, but she's seen all the scrapes and bruises from playing, so she regretfully declines.

Anything else to share? One of my mottos in life is "work hard, play harder." Sometimes it feels like I'm going 200 miles an hour both inside and outside of work. I try to keep very busy and probably take on too much at times. But all the stress in life goes away when I'm on the court. I've always considered racquetball my "safe haven." No matter what problems happen throughout the day, I'm able to focus solely on chasing the ball around the court for an hour or two. Even though I may be tired afterwards, I always feel better after playing racquetball than before when I went to the gym. The camaraderie with others and the great exercise is what keeps me coming back!

Referee Certification Program

Alive and Well

Since the last issue of the ISRA Newsletter, we have added three new names to the growing list of Level One Certified Referees.

Interest has continued to grow for members of our State Association. As of this publication, a total of 92 individuals have attended Rules and Case Study Clinics, including 11 Juniors. Of these participants, 17 individuals have taken the Level One Rules Test, with nine receiving passing grades of 86%. With that success, the second step of the year-long process was accomplished.

With classroom attendance and testing complete, the "practical, or lab work" of officiating at least 10 matches, two of which are observed and evaluated, resulted in eight members of the ISRA becoming Certified Referees. The latest graduates of the State Program are Bilal Muhammad, Rick Seaberg, and Matt Reeser. Welcome aboard, gentlemen!

Todd Burris earned the distinction of being the first participant to complete the requirements of our current revitalized activity and attain his certification. Ellen Somberg, Joan Vande Kieft, Andy Pitock, and Jerry Fronczak have also taken the time and expended the effort to reach the goal of referee certification.

All requirements for certification -- attending a rules clinic, attending a case study clinic, receiving a passing grade on a written test, plus officiating ten matches with two evaluated -- must be completed within one calendar year.

Rules clinics, case study clinics, and testing will be offered at all sanctioned tournaments in the coming year. Join us, learn a bit more about our game, and enjoy some spirited discussions about the rules of racquetball!

Junior Describe Nationals Experience: 2014 Wilson Junior OLYMPIC CHAMPIONSHIPS

Highlands Ranch Recreation Center
Highlands Ranch, CO
June 25-29, 2014

Jeremy Dixon, 16, and Michael Fornero, now 15, traveled to Colorado in June to compete along with 154 other players in over 60 divisions (Olympic format) at the Junior Olympic Championships, also known as Junior Nationals. They represented Team Illinois very well, and each describes his experiences at the event, below.

Jeremy writes:

Nationals is the best time of the year for any young racquetball player. You work all season to get to the level you want to play, and then you lay it all on the line at the biggest tournament of the year. This is the Junior Nationals for me. When I think of my ultimate goal for the season, this is the tournament I immediately have in my head. This year's venue was the Highlands Ranch Recreational Center in Denver, Colorado. I arrived a couple days early with my doubles partner and close friend Michael Fornero. My mom chaperoned us for the first half of the trip. We arrived at our hotel and had a great view of the town and mountains that Colorado is famous for. If the altitude didn't take your breath away, the sites certainly would. After a couple days of light playing and getting used to the climate, I had my first match. I ended up winning fairly easily and kept going until I lost and made a run in the drop-down division. I played a close match with my former doubles partner, which was a battle because we knew each other's games like the back of our hands. I lost in a close tiebreaker but was still satisfied with my performance and placed 3rd in this division (16- Blue). Next was doubles. Michael and I played pretty well overall in the tournament. After a couple matches we found ourselves in the same drop-down division as I was in singles. We ended up playing my former doubles partner and his brother again and lost a tough match to take 2nd in this division (16- Consolation). These were my competitive experiences at the tournament, but that's only half the fun. I also got to meet people I haven't seen in a couple of years as I skipped the tournament the past season. My former doubles partner who I have mentioned was a good example of this. Braeden D'Almeida is from Michigan, and I enjoyed catching up with him, his brother, and his dad. They're all great guys, and we always have a good time. There's also a crazy amount of high-profile players at the tournament in every division, and it's amazing to watch kids younger than me play at such a high level. People always ask me what my favorite part of this tournament is, and I always say that it's so much fun to play in such a great tournament. It's run well, and it's a blast to play kids your age, which rarely happens, at least for me. My least favorite part is leaving after a week around people who share the same passion as I do. Rarely do so many players and fans of the sport gather in what seems like racquetball heaven. I wouldn't be able to play at the level I am at now if it weren't for everyone who supports me and coaches me. I would like to deeply thank my parents Jen and Barry Dixon for their support and the rides to the courts 4 or 5 days a week all year round. My coach, Marian Bala (aka Chief). My doubles partner Michael Fornero and his parents Peggy and Mike for their extended support and helping me out in any way they possibly can. My sponsor Ektelon for providing me with the best gear in the game so I can have the tools. The ISRA, Just for Jordan, and everyone from the state who wasn't with me in person, but I knew they were rooting for me.

Michael Fornero, "Chief" Marian Bala, Jeremy Dixon

And everyone at Glass Court for their patience and time in helping me become a better player and playing with me any day of the week. Racquetball is a way of life for me, and I hope that I can continue playing my whole life and that I will continue to improve and be the best player I can possibly be.

Michael adds:

I was very happy with the schedule format and appreciated how well-organized things were. We were at the tournament for a total of seven days in which I played 14 and under singles as well as 16 and under doubles. I advanced to the 3rd round in singles play and we took 2nd place for doubles in the dropdown division. It was fairly done because the most I played was two matches consecutively. My doubles play was consistent, but I seemed to lose focus at times in my singles play. The best part of the tournament was meeting and playing new kids. I would definitely go back because it was an enjoyable experience. I would like to thank my partner Jeremy, my coach Marian, my mother Peggy for coming out to watch, my dad Mike, my sponsor Head, the ISRA, and Just for Jordan for all the support they have given me.

21st Annual SUMMERFEST OPEN

Twenty-plus years and still going strong!

It's a point of great pride and good fortune for Illinois that we have a club like Glass Court that provides a first-class experience, so much so that people come from other states for the hospitality of the event and the quality of the competition. This "lazy little summer tournament" offered some formidable competition in 19 divisions to 110 players from eight states: Arizona, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, North Carolina, Virginia, and Wisconsin.

In this first sanctioned event of the 2014-2015 season, three players who were winners of full draw divisions will be "movin' on up" at the end of the season (if not sooner!): Men's B – Jesus Rojas; Men's C – Ravi Kishore Yenduri; and Men's D – Allen Bell. Congrats!

Many thanks to these volunteers who contributed their time and efforts toward this successful event: Marian Bala, Todd Burris, Mike Davern, Jeremy Dixon, Michael Fornero, Jeff Grace, Pam Grace, Joy Herth, Cheryl Kirk, Dolores Lamberson, Eric Mathews, Lisa Mayer, Liz Molitor, Geoff Peters, Andy Pitock, Amanda Podlesak, John Puccio, Lora Reeser, Joe Silius, and Saad Siddiqui.

Following the finals matches, a great summer meal was served up along with the traditional pool party.

Results appear on page 11 and full draws can be viewed at <http://www.r2sports.com/tourney/viewResults.asp?TID=12882>.

FALL BRAWL

featuring the World Racquetball Tour

Glass Court Swim & Fitness, Lombard, IL
Tournament Directors: Jeff Grace, Dave Negrete, Joey Logan
October 3-5, 2014

Lights...cameras...action! The World Racquetball Tour stopped off at Glass Court for a show before continuing north. Wow, top-notch racquetball in our own back yard! People paid for tickets to watch the same racquetball action at the US Open in Minneapolis the following week.

Live streaming extended the excitement beyond the walls of Glass Court. Thanks to sponsors Gearbox, Glass Court, Anthony's Pizzeria, Kirsten's Danish Bakery, Comfort Inn & Suites, ENG Networking Group, KWM Gutterman, Sue & Leo Klimaitis, John Vercillo, Alok & Heather Mehta, Timber Trails Development Corporation, Coyle & Associates, Amatulli & Associates, Silvon, Center for Sports Orthopedics/Tyler Medical Services, and Wooden Shoe Graphics.

Heritage Community Service, Inc., a mentoring charity, benefited from part of this event's proceeds.

No event would be successful without the volunteers! Much gratitude goes to Marian Bala, Diane Bunker, Marla Cusano, Mike Davern, Jeremy Dixon, Jonelle Dubois, Michael Fornero, Pam Grace, Doug Halverson, Joy Herth, Martha Huske, Cheryl Kirk, Dolores Lamberson, Eric Mathews, Liz Molitor, Patti Moser, Geoff Peters, John Puccio, Lora Reeser, Rick Seaberg, Joan Vande Kieft, and Julie Vincent.

A hearty and heartfelt shout-out to the Turkey Shoot volunteers: Marian Bala, Eric Battaglia, Todd Burris, Marla Cusano, Mike Davern, Laurel Davis, Jonelle Dubois, Peggy Fornero, Jeff Grace, Pam Grace, Cheryl Kirk, Dolores Lamberson, Vickie Onesti, Geoff Peters, John Puccio, Dave Singer, Abby Singer, John Thorson, and Jim Wehrli.

In this last tournament article of the year, it's appropriate to offer special gratitude to ALL the volunteers who helped out at the many local, state, and regional tournaments in 2014. You know who they are – the friendly faces who donate their time and expertise at check-in, at the tournament desk, and as referees (even when they don't have to!). Without these volunteers, we couldn't possibly offer you the tournament experiences you have come to appreciate. If you would like to become involved as a tournament volunteer, you will be warmly welcomed! Contact Cheryl Kirk at cherylkkirk@aol.com for more information.

The year 2015 is right around the corner, with more tournaments and a few shootouts to boot. See you on the courts!

Lend Your SUPPORT

Your membership in the ISRA has helped make our organization second to none. Though we strive to make improvements to build and grow the sport for future success, we sometimes struggle to keep our heads above water as an organization. Our focus is not for the purpose of monetary gain but to generate enough funds to give back quality, first-rate programs, tournaments and events we can all be proud to participate in. Our volunteers who donate their time and/or money are greatly appreciated as are those who advertise in this ISRA Newsletter. For as little as $25 for a business card size ad, we can help get your name out there to let everyone know what you do; for $150, we can run your ad on a full page.
